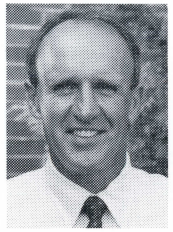
Men's Tennis

Salisbury State University



DEAN BURROUGHS
HEAD COACH

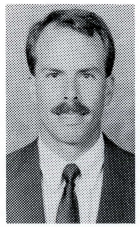
Dean Burroughs is in his 17th year as the highly-successful head coach of the Salisbury State men's tennis program. Under his direction, the Sea Gulls have averaged 15 wins per year, and Burroughs sports a 237-90 career record, for a winning percentage of .725.

Always among the region's best teams, Salisbury State has visited the NCAA tournament six times and had countless players honored as regional and national All-Americans.

Through Burroughs' hard-work and dedication to the collegiate game, Salisbury State has hosted the men's NCAA Division III championships twice during the '80s. SSU's outstanding tennis facilities, already featuring 12 lighted outdoor courts, had a recent addition of three new indoor courts which will now allow for practice and match play without interruption due to inclement weather.

Burroughs' broad tennis interests and concern for the development of the game are demonstrated through his membership in the Mid-Atlantic Professional Tennis Association, where he serves as vice president of schools and colleges for the MATA. He is director of the respected MATA Film Library and also serves as sectional endorser/coach of the MAYA Jr. Davis Cup and Corish Cup teams.

In addition to his coaching duties, Burroughs is SSU's associate director of athletics and is an associate professor in the Department of Physical Education. He and his wife, Roseanne, reside in Salisbury and have four children.



CARL URIAN
ASSISTANT COACH

Back once again to assistant Burroughs and help in the individual development of the players is Carl Urian, who played for Burroughs from 1976-80. Featuring a sound background of teaching and competing, the former Sea Gull works primarily in practice with drill work and improving of fundamentals. Urian, 31, lives in Salisbury, and works full-time at his own insurance agency.
